Award for Best Actor from the Frantic Film Festival starring in - Explanation Impossible

About me - I was born in the UK, London. My family moved to Malta when I was 10. At around 29/30 I had my first opportunity to be on set as an extra, on Game of Thrones. I was super eager so they called me in, as a stand-in which I loved. Mini brag coming up! I've gone on to double for Christian Bale, Joseph Fiennes, Rob Lowe.

After meeting people who worked as actors back then, on the set of Game of Thrones, I somehow made it into various local adverts. A director at the time gave me a break and made me a lead in a commercial for Melita, a large telecommunications company in Malta. After that advert, my luck continued and I went from role to role I went on to do improv as a hobby, which I really enjoyed and learned I was pretty decent at performing, and ended up doing two shows with the crew.

I then began to make short films, with the friends I'd meet on sets, and have continued that to this day. Acting has always been a dream of mine, and I've been really grateful I've been able to do it. My hope is to get some break, in a leading role.

Thank you for taking the time to read through.
