Skills/Experience

‘Savannah is a well behaved young teen who settles easily, she is currently at PQA arts schools where she does drama, dance and singing, according to her report and end of term performance she is keen to share creative ideas, focused, attentive and is developing very good techniques. She takes direction well, works very well in a group and alone and is nicely confident. She is chatty, smiley and friendly.’

My formal experience in acting and advertising continues to grow, and I previously worked with high street brands in video and photo campaigns but I now can't wait for my next role. I am an enthusiastic and keen learner who takes direction well and is at ease in front of the camera. Currently I attend actors door studio studying screen acting classes and singing. I previously attended both stage and drama school from the age of 6yrs taking lamda exams with a distinction, which helped improve my acting, singing & drama skills. I am a professional throughout the entire course of an appointment.
