Film and theatre are my passion, love, desire and admiration. I am eager to go in-depth of human mind and being by introducing my skills and energy into characters, each and every of whom I believe to be very special, like all of us. My acquaintances would describe me as a lively and confident person, while family – as a sensible, observant, hardworking and determined one.

[Special skills] I have played tennis professionally for 6 years throughout childhood, as well as 7 years of diverse dance styles. I can skateboard, rollerblade, cycle, swim, ski and do animal flow. Have two young siblings, as a result am skilled at dealing with children, understand and feel what motherhood is like.

[Background & languages] Studied in a private movie school in Kyiv; speak English (american accent) and Ukrainian fluently, German on a basic level.

Looking forward to working together, thank you for your time!
