Actress

PROFILE

I am a versatile artist with 14 years of experience in the craft. My love for the stage began at a young age; it follows me wherever I go. I have been part of theater companies in South Africa, Spain and Germany and my experience earned me a reputation as a skilled actress, playwright, and director.

As an actress, I have portrayed a wide range of characters in diverse productions. I have been praised for my versatility and ability to bring depth and authenticity to each role.

Aside from acting, I write & direct. Most recently, I produced No Fairytale for the English Theater in Dortmund where I am currently based. I am passionate about exploring new ideas and approaches to theater and evolving as an artist.
