About Me

Born in Dublin, Ireland in 1984. I received my first acting experience going to an American school in Muscat, Oman. After studying Hotel Management in Switzerland and several years of working all over the world I decided it was time to follow my childhood passion. So I moved to Vienna in 2021 and successfully pursued the Austrian acting diploma. Since then I have been partaking in local theatre performances for ex. in Komödie am Kai in a production of Golden Girls and Improv Club, although my real passion lies in TV and Film. An adrenaline boy and a nature junkie; I live for skiing, climbing and downhill mountain biking.
