Justin, a native of San Francisco, CA, grew up immersed in theater and performing arts thanks to his father, a painter and portrait artist. Performing from a young age at festivals such as California's iconic Renaissance Pleasure Faires and Great Dickens Fairs, trained and mentored by professionals throughout his formative years, he developed a passion for acting, music and storytelling. With decades of experience, he has worked professionally as an actor, moderator, singer-songwriter, and public speaker across theater and film, as well as modeling in the U.S. and Europe.
