ABOUT ME

I am an expressive film actor who loves the challenge of diverse roles with profound characters. I am not one to shy away from stepping out of my comfort zone and digging deep into my acting tool box to discover how I can bring my character to life. I am passionate about the whole process, from script analysis to blocking to playing the action. I strive to improve my skill by listening to my team of directors, producers, and co-actors. My goal is to deliver above and beyond expectations.
