

Antonija Zoc Marijanović

ACTRESS

I am a Mediterranean actress from Croatia with professional experience in film, theatre, and television, both during and after my studies at the Academy of Dramatic Art. I am passionate about storytelling, exploring complex characters, and creating meaningful connections with audiences. In addition to acting, I work professionally as a teacher of theatre and film acting. Besides acting, I am also engaged in singing lessons, horse riding, contemporary dance, Turkish and English language studies, as well as Argentine tango. Through this, I wish to further develop my abilities and skills in movement and speech.
