Ethnicity White Nationality France Location Bangkok, Thailand Passport Yes

Defined by a sharp, angular bone structure and a commanding, internal dramatic weight, he naturally occupies the "volatile intellectual" and "enigmatic operative" casting brackets. Flavien specializes in complex anti-heroes, sharp-witted antagonists, and characters holding immense psychological leverage. Operating fluidly in both native French and precise, continental English, Flavien is uniquely positioned for high-end international co-productions and cross-border streaming series that require sophisticated, textured global characters.
