Summary

Acting has always been, and will always be, my greatest passion. My long-term goal is to build an international acting career and work on major film and television productions around the world.

I am a confident and natural performer in front of the camera, quick to take direction, adaptable, hardworking, and reliable. I always arrive prepared, maintain a positive attitude, and enjoy being part of a creative team.

I know that success in this industry requires dedication, resilience, and constant growth, and I am fully committed to putting in the work. Acting is not just something I enjoy, it is the career I am determined to build.

Thank you for taking the time to read my resume, and I hope to have the opportunity to work with you in the future!
